Hymn #600

I Need Thee Every Hour

Benediction

Alone in an Old Rocking Chair

Sitting alone in an old rocking chair,
I saw an old mother with silvery hair.

She seemed so neglected by those who should care,
Rocking alone in an old rocking chair.

Her hands were all callused, wrinkled and old
A life of hard work was the story they told.

And I thought of angels as I saw her there
Rocking alone in an old rocking chair.

Bless her old heart do you think she complained?

Tho' life had been bitter she's live it again

And carry the cross that is more than her share,

Rocking alone in an old rocking chair.

It wouldn't take much to gladden her heart

Just some small remembrance
