Sleep

If Christ had done nothing more for humanity than give it the word sleep in place of death,

He would have been the greatest of benefactors.

He taught new truth about death, explaining that it is not what it seems.

It is to life what sleep is to the day.

Sleep rests and restores the body to a fuller and fresher life.

Christ would not have called death sleep merely because of its external likeness.

His thought struck deeper than that.

He meant that death does for us what sleep does for the body:

Repairs, Invigorates, and Repeats for us the morning of life.
