The World Knew Him Not

The heavens announced Jesus' birth,
The angels sang praises that night;
Still the world did not see that the Savior had come
To turn men from darkness to light.
If Jesus would come to the inn of your heart
And ask for a place there today,
Would you recognize Him as God's only Son?
The world knew Him not,
And they left Him no room,
This Child whom the prophets foretold,
The world He created had left Him no place
But a manger bed, rugged and cold.
The star of Bethlehem beckoned
And bid Him to enter and stay.
His Word, not a star, is the light that we see;
Redeemed ones, not angels, sing praise.
Let all who receive Him as Savior draw near
And join in the song that we raise!
