New Calendar by Mary E Linton

This calendar holds all the days ahead,
This year of days, nights and hours, all spread

In printed squares upon a page...all new
And fresh with waiting wonder, as with dew...

These next twelve months through which we shall be led.

And now the year that has so quickly sped
Belongs to history, a chapter read...

While this one to be written comes in view...This calendar.

Oh, this year, may our hungers all be fed
With more than meat and drink...the daily bread

For which our spirits cry is something true

And purposeful, weaving its pattern through

Each day and year tracing with beauty's thread...This calendar.
